Dear Miriam;

I just wanted to thank you for the tenacious, thorough, and creative representation you gave my sister and me in the matter of our inheritance from our grandparents. As you will remember this was a complicated case where by my Grandmother had left virtually all her estate to my Grandfather and then he left virtually everything to his companion. The companion changed her will from the one she showed my grandfather and left everything to a man who appears to be someone who exerted undue influence over my Grandfather's ex companion.

You took the time to scour the extensive documents, and uncovered an inappropriate use of my grandmother's savings that were to go to my sister's and me. In addition you worked well with the pro bono counsel for a nonprofit also involved and got a very acceptable settlement on our behalf.

Thank you for all your efforts and I would recommend your services in the future.

Sincerely,
